Spring, 2018

“Learn to sail” training on Okauchee is entering its 52nd year and hundreds of students have learned to sail – and race. All classes are taught by experienced sailors. Instructors are US Sailing certified. Classes are held at the Okauchee Lake facility on Breezy Point Road.

Learn 2 Sail Camp $100

Tuesday June 12th , Wednesday June 13th , Thursday June 14th 9:00 – 12:00

Sailboats are supplied by OLSS. Students need to know how to swim but need have little or no sailing experience. Based on progress during this camp, students will be advised about possible next steps. Students who sign up for additional OLSS sessions this season will be credited with a credit equal to half of the fee for this session.

Optimist (Opti) lessons for 7 – 12 year olds $250

11 Lessons begin June 19th. See full schedule on OLSS website. Great second step for those wishing to advance from Learn 2 Sail Camps. Lessons taught by experienced college age sailors. Students may sail in windy conditions. Coaches will teach fundamentals as well as racing strategies. Coaching provided at regattas attended by 3 or more sailors. Students may use their own Optimists, or rent an OLSS Optimist for $100.

Class X Racing Lessons: Skippers 11 – 16 year olds $350
Crew 8 - 15 year olds $200

14 Lessons begin June 12th. Lessons may include joint classes at North Lake. Most classes on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 1-4. Lessons taught by two experienced college age sailors. Students need to have sailing, but not necessarily racing experience. This class will combine all levels of sailing skill, however, after a few lessons, students will be expected to sail in windy conditions. Coaches will teach fundamentals and racing strategies. Coaches will attend regattas with sailors if more than a few attend.

- The Boats (not to scale)

Optimist Dinghy

Class X Boat

Optimist Dinghy. Sometimes referred to as the International Optimist Dinghy, or IOD. Its 8'6" long and sailed single handed. It's the world's most popular boat. Great for learning, and also raced on Okauchee, as well as local (Waukesha), National and International competitions (regattas). Check out the website at www.usoda.org the OLSS owns 7 IOD's. Typically families race IOD's use their own boat. Used boats are plentiful, cheap and (if cared for properly) easy to sell. Suitable for sailors aged 7 – 12 who weigh less than about 100 lbs.

Class X boat. 16' double handed, single hull sailboat with jib and mainsail. Great for learning, and also raced on Okauchee, as well as local and regional events (regattas). Check out the manufacturer's website at www.melges.com The OLSS owns two X boats which can be chartered. Typically families that race these boats own their own. Used boats are plentiful, cheap and (if cared for properly) easy to sell. Suitable for sailors aged 10-16 of any size.

Check out the links listed above or check out the Okauchee Lake Sailing School website (listed in the heading) for information, 2018 calendar, and links to great sailing sites.
